Dear Publisher:

The Missouri Department of Corrections has reviewed the June 29-July 5, 2013 issue of The Economist sent to multiple offenders at various Department correctional facilities. This issue has been censored and has been prohibited from being delivered within the relevant facilities. Please see the enclosed censorship notification forms for additional information.

If you desire, you may request an independent review of the Committee's determination by the Deputy Director of the Division of Adult Institutions. This request must be made in writing and mailed or faxed to the DAI Deputy Director at the address or facsimile number indicated below. Your request must be received by the DAI Deputy Director no later than thirty (30) calendar days following the date of this letter in order to be considered. The DAI Deputy Director's response will be the final decision.

The Censorship Committee has reviewed materials sent to you. Pursuant to our review of this material, we conclude that the security of this institution will be at risk if the material is delivered to you within this institution because the material:

1. constitutes a threat to the security, good order or discipline of the institution;
2. may facilitate or encourage criminal activity; or
3. may interfere with the rehabilitation of an offender.

THIS CONCLUSION IS BASED UPON THE FACT THAT THE MATERIAL: (SELECT ALL REASONS THAT MAY APPLY)

promotes, incites, or advocates violence is so radically inflammatory as to be reasonably likely to cause violence

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS:

IS13-1.2 Censorship Procedure III C-2 a. promotes, incites, or advocates violence, disorder or the violation of state or federal law, or advocates, facilitates or otherwise presents a risk of lawlessness, violence, anarchy or rebellion against a governmental authority; e. contains information which can be used to instill violence or hatred among the offender population;
